International Affairs Center (IAC) held the second orientation on 10th December 2019. As Tohoku University is hiring and interacting with more and more international researchers recently, providing support for them is getting more important.

The orientation consisted of 3 parts;

1. Introduction of the support contents of IAC; arrival support, Japanese classes, etc.
2. Information for working at TU: TU information system, working regulation, external fund, tax, childcare.
3. Information for living in Sendai: Transportation, sightseeing, etc.

We also held a Japanese class after the orientation. Participants enjoyed learning Japanese language, culture, and conversation among participants.
